

Lisa is John's nighttime caregiver who stays up all night outside his room in case John needs help in the middle of the night

Lisa is stressed and on high alert about John's safety, but also is thinking about all the other tasks on her To Do List

Lisa spends the night listening for clues that John has woken up

The device will automatically detect if John is sleeping or awake during the night

